Praying Hands Bible
by Lincoln Rogers

But He does according to His will in the host of heaven and among the inhabitants of earth; Dan. 4:35

Join me in His throne room. Where God reigns in the affairs of men.

Home Church in So. CA

Sometimes God blesses in a special way and longtime friendships and associations are developed. Such is the case with a home church in Southern California.

I have often preached to this precious group of believers in La Habra Heights. Please join me in praying for God's presence and ministry this Sunday morning.

H.O.M.E. Support Group

Monday afternoon the teens of the H.O.M.E. homeschool support group in Simi Valley, CA and I will meet together to have a Reality Check: Life's Not About You. Then in the evening I'll meet with the parents to speak about The Power of Hope in Discipling Your Children. In both cases, the gospel will be presented and my prayer is that God would be gracious to reveal Himself and save those who have yet to be regenerated by God's Spirit. Thank you for praying for these two speaking opportunities.

Let's Pray!

Father in heaven, we acknowledge that you have opened heaven to us through the blood and righteousness of Your son, Jesus. We approach Your throne with confidence that You will do wonderful things because You have all authority in heaven and earth and the responsibility for these two ministry opportunities is Your responsibility. We ask that You glorify Your name through Jesus and through us as we pray and preach. Open hearts to hear and bear fruit. May the fruit also remain for Your glory.

Holy Spirit, prepare the teens for the gospel and anoint Your Word to their hearts. May those who are dead in sin be raised to life. Set the deceived and oppressed free. And grant that I may share Your Word in love, humility, and with power.

Thank You for the hope of the gospel. Father, because of the living hope in Christ, we believe and love. May those who hear Monday night grow in their faith toward Christ, love for You and love for each other. May they also understand how to give hope to their children through the gospel and in their child training. Amen.

I would love to hear from you.
