“My husband came home and taught me.”

The Blessing of a Husband who Loves his Family

After the worship service, a wife and mother made the above comment. She told me how encouraged she was by the weekend father/son retreat because her husband came home and taught her what he had learned. I thought, “That’s the way it’s supposed to happen.”

I had a wonderful weekend in GA! First, the fellowship in Christ with the men and sons of Grace Fellowship Baptist was such a testimony of the grace of God and the blessings that come through Jesus Christ.

Second, there is great joy when the Word of God is taught, covered in prayer, and hearts are prepared by God. The work of the Lord was obvious as fathers and sons discussed how they might apply the truth from the book of Philippians that there is only one way to live: in a manner worthy of the Lord.

Third, I reconnected with a dear couple who served in the leadership team when I was a youth director at FBC Pompano Beach, FL 31 years ago! It’s the first time we’ve met since 1978. Jack began playing the bass fiddle with me then and he brought it to the camp and played along as we worshipped on Sat. afternoon.

Thank you for lifting us up in prayer and entering into the labor and fruit for the glory of God. This next weekend, I’ll be speaking at the ...

ACPEQ Homeschool Conference in Montreal, Canada

Please pray for this coming weekend’s ministry with me.

Father in heaven, for your joy and through the glorious work of Christ, we lift up the time of ministry in Montreal. Please prepare the hearts of the parents who will attend. Marriages need to be healed, encouraged, and restored. Father, set people free from the destruction of idolatry. Anchor them in Jesus Christ, and fill them with hope through the gospel as it is taught and applied. Fill me with your Spirit as I prepare and then present your Word. Superintend the translation work and enable them to communicate accurately and passionately for your glory. Amen.
