Thank you for praying.

“That will change the way I live.”

This past weekend I spoke at FBC Washington, MO. After the Sunday morning message a woman made the remark above. God had prepared her heart and she was open to receive. Many people acknowledged God's presence and an awe of the power of the gospel. Thank you for praying!

Dad's Summit Webinar took place on Sunday evening. Men attended online from five countries and twenty states. Let's continue to pray for God to bear fruit through the messages and turn the hearts of men to Himself and to their children.

CHEF of Missouri Homeschool Convention concluded last night with God's outpouring of His presence and repentance. I think God answered prayer that He would open the heavens and come down in our midst and transform hearts.

After “Heart Maintenance”, three people expressed thanks with tears for God's grace to convict them of hard hearts, and it was obvious that God had met them. A father told me he had been hopeless about his grown children for years and after hearing about the power of hope was hopeful that two relationships could be repaired. He knew what he had to do. People are so thirsty for Jesus! After the worship service and the message “Are You Thirsty”, a father asked for prayer and said, “I am so thirsty to have my wife and children drink of Jesus through my life.” With tears of joy he received the ministry of the Holy Spirit as I prayed for Him to be filled with rivers of living water as Jesus promised to those who would come to Him and drink. Are you thirsty? I've been asking God to help us get the electronic file of “Equipped to Love” in Romanian which was translated five years ago. A man came to the booth and said, “I last saw you in Sibiu, Romania!” His wife's sister (from Romania) is best friends with the woman who translated the book. In minutes, we were connected on Facebook. Thank you for praying this week. God worked in wonderful ways.

Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Hebrews 4.16

Rejoice always; pray without ceasing; in everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. 1 Thessalonians 5.16-18
