

Babylon Has Fallen Rev. 18

Intro (Rev. 18:1)

1. Review

2. A mighty angel reveals the destruction of Babylon, the harlot. 18:1 (Ez. 43:2)

Babylon Described (Rev. 18:2-3)

1. The world system on the earth has become a _____.
2. Her associations are also implicated.

God's People Called Out of Babylon (Rev. 18:4)

1. God's people are the "called out ones".
2. The saints do not _____ in the harlot's immoralities.
3. Paul taught this truth to the Ephesians (John's church).

Babylon Judged by God (Rev. 18:5-8)

1. God sees and remembers the sins of the world.
2. God's judgment is severe.
3. God's judgment parallels Isaiah's lament over Babylon. Is. 47:5-10

The Laments Over Babylon (Rev. 18:9-19)

1. Babylon lamented by the _____.
 1. They _____ because the object of their lusts is destroyed. (Rev. 17:16)
 2. They _____ themselves in fear.
 3. They _____ the harlot.
2. Babylon lamented by the _____.
 1. They _____ because they have no one to buy their goods.
 2. They _____ themselves in fear.
 3. They _____ the harlot.
3. Babylon lamented by the _____.
 1. They _____ at a distance and mourn.
 2. They _____ because the source of their living has disappeared.
 3. They _____ the harlot.

The Saints rejoice over the fall of Babylon (20)

1. Not everyone laments the destruction of the world system.
2. God's judgment of the world is on behalf of His people.

Babylon Destroyed (Rev. 18:21-24)

1. The world system sinks of its own weight of _____.
2. There will be no _____.
3. There will be no _____.
4. There will be no sounds of _____.
5. There will be no _____ for light (the HS is no longer at work).
6. There will be no more working of the _____. The harlot has none who will marry her- they are all drugged by her wine.
7. The harlot is responsible for the death of the _____ as well as _____ on the earth.

Questions of application

1. Is the pride of the harlot in you?
2. Is there any fear that God sees you living off the harlot? Are you a friend of the world (James 4:4-5).
3. Have you been called out of this world. Will you rejoice over its destruction or will its fall cause you grief?
4. Jesus may be at the door!